MASTERCLASS:

IMPROVE YOUR ESSAY-SKILLS
FOR A LEVEL RELIGIOUS STUDIES

Online Course

With Charlotte Vardy

Summer 2021
(Re-launches 1st June)

A Level Religious Studies is not easy! Not only are students expected to get to grips with a huge amount of detailed, challenging content in short order, but they are also expected to make academic judgments, advance and defend scholarly arguments in response to all aspects of that content. Even when they know and understand the material, many students struggle to write good essays, and this stands in the way of them achieving C+ grades. Many students ask...

Is there a "right way" of writing an A Level essay?

What actually is an essay beyond being an extended piece of writing?

What is the most effective way to structure an essay in the exam?

This online course, aimed at students moving from Year 12 into Year 13, answers these questions and aims to support students in improving their essay skills for A Level Religious Studies.

Students can work through the course at their own pace. Each student receives their own login details, which provide access to the course from 1st June until the new academic year begins in September 2021. Each of the 10 video-units lasts around 20 minutes, but comes with a range of practical activities to complete. In total the course will take at least 4 hours to complete and concludes with a "theory-test", the results of which can be certificated.

"Thank you so much for a great webinar yesterday evening. Student feedback was very positive and they really enjoyed the quizzes built within the live webinar."

Feedback after Revise A Level RS events, May 2019

The CPD event on writing A Level essays was of great help and gave me lots of ideas and strengthened my knowledge on how best to advise students to write an essay. Paula Gwilliam, June 2020
